Fashion To Pair Off In "Two for the Show"

Twenty twins and triplets and their model-mothers will stroll down the fashion ramps of the Pen and Quill Restaurant in Manhattan Beach at 7 p.m. Monday evening when South Bay Mothers of Twins Club presents its fifth annual Fashion Parade.

It will be "Two For the Show!" all the way. Not only will the small fry parade in pairs, but the adult models will also appear in duos, with each new Spring fashion complementing its partner.

Perky outfits for the young set will be modeled by Kathie and Susie Adams, Greg and Meg Cassell Tracy, Terry and Mark Eisman, Heidi and Melinda Garrett, Joyce and Carl Jackson, Launa and Lowell Johannknecht, Nancy and Richard Kimmel, Doug and Scott Smith and David, Daniel and DeWayne Watson. After they march off the ramps, their mothers will appear modeling Spring creations.

With Mrs. Gordon Anderson of Palos Verdes Estates, chairman of Fashion Arrangements, will appear the following model-mothers: Mmes. John Adams, William Bradley, Howard DeCastro, Ronald Eisman, Richard Gilmore, Bing Harris, James Huserau, Robert Jackson, Guy Locas and Ron Strawn. Narrating the show will be Mrs. Norven McKeap.

Proceeds of the event will go to the Harbor Area Retarded Children's Foundation, according to Mrs. Glenn Smith, president.

Melodies played by organist Bill Bailey will greet the anticipated 400 members and their guests, as they are welcomed by: Mmes. William Brodsley, Jack Downhill, Frank Karp, Cleve Kimmel, Andy Meier, Jerry Steinbrecher, and Charles Wood, hostesses.

"Something new has been added," says general chairman Mrs. Richard Cassell of Hollywood Riviera. "This year we are inviting the fathers of twins. After last year's show, we learned that many fathers felt left out of all the fun, so we'll no longer discriminate against our better halves and hope they will enjoy this year's "Two For the Show" Fashion Parade just as much as we all do who are participating."

Gold and blue are the theme colors chosen by decoration chairman Mrs. Ronald Eisman who has arranged for gold-decor drama masques to grace each individual table. The programs designed by chairman Mrs. Fred Casstevens will also highlight the golden theme.

Co-chairmen Mrs. John Watson and Mrs. Russell Cameron have completed preparations for special award and gifts. A "California Holiday in San Francisco" weekend, with jet fare and hotel reservations for a lucky couple, awaits the winner of the special gifts.

Ticket chairman is Mrs. William Seaman.

Gardena Junior Matrons Elect Slate

Mrs. Jiro Hara was elected president of the Gardena Junior Matrons at their recent semi-annual election meeting, presided by Mrs. Henry Hiwa.
